

Super Hero Story: Requirements

Synopsis

Imagine that you have super powers! What powers would you have? How did you receive your powers? What do you do with your powers? Now imagine that there is a dangerous villain, force of nature, aliens, or some other threat to the entire world. How will you, the superhero, deal with this threat? During the next three weeks you will write a creative story about your life as a super hero and how you will confront a grave threat to all humanity. You will need to address all of the required components and focus on the specific topics in each paragraph.

Structure

Your story must contain at least six paragraphs and each paragraph must have at least four sentences. You must include the requirements listed below.

1. Introduction

Seize the reader's interest with a brief description of the super villain or conflict. Describe how there is only one person, you, that can stop this menace. Give the reader a hint at what is going to happen. Conclude with a transition to you, the superhero's, origin story.

2. First body paragraph: Origin

Tell the reader about how you got your powers, your weakness, your costume, your super hero identity, your code of conduct, your super friends and allies, and/or anything else you want the reader to know about you. Please go into detail on how you got your powers and your reaction to your powers. How did you learn to control your powers? Include lots of descriptions and your feelings.

3. Second body paragraph: Problem or Conflict

Describe a problem, conflict, or antagonist (villain) that you must confront. Provide a mini adventure about how the villain, force of nature, or other problem is threatening the world. Use this paragraph to provide extensive details about the problem that you, the superhero, must confront. Does the antagonist directly threaten you or someone you care about? Explain the antagonist's motives.

4. Third body paragraph: Action

Describe how you will deal with the conflict or villain. This paragraph should include extensive action and dialogue. You don't necessarily have to fight the villain. Who helps you and/or the antagonist? Remember to write a separate paragraph every time someone talks and use quotation marks.

5. Fourth body paragraph: Resolution

Describe what happens after the conflict is resolved. What happens to the you, the antagonist, your friends, and the world? What are the costs? What are the short and long term effects?

6. Conclusion

Briefly summarize your story. What lesson did you learn and what is your message to the reader? Conclude with a though provoking statement. Consider using the phrase... "Imagine if everyone..."

Be sure to correct spelling, grammar, and formatting errors. Ask an adult to proofread it. Did you use quotations and separate paragraphs for dialogue?