Reading Comprehension Strategies

1. Connect the story to your own life. How is your life similar to the story? What is different?
2. Connect the story to other stories you have read or heard.
3. Question: What is happening? Why is it happening? What will happen next?
 - a. Look for cause and effect relationships (i.e. because this happened this result occurred)
4. Search the story for context clues to figure out what is going on and answer questions.
5. Look up unfamiliar vocabulary words and/or use context clues to infer their meaning.
6. What is the story's climax(es) and the resolution(s)?
7. Summarize what happened. Focus on the most important events, not the details.
8. What is the author's message and/or what is the theme?
 - a. What lesson(s) did the characters learn?
 - b. How did the story make you feel?

After you finish reading a story ask yourself these questions.

- What was your favorite part of the book? Why?
- Who was your favorite character? Why?
- What was the most interesting thing you learned from the book?
- Why do you think the author wrote this book?
- Would you have ended the book differently? Did it end the way you thought it would?
- If you could change one thing in the book, what would it be?
